Learn The Six Ancient Secrets To Ultra Deep And Blissful Meditation...

The "Deep Trance Meditation" Secrets Will Help You To Harness Your Creative Genius, Stimulate Your Intellectual Abilities, and Attain the Blissful Calm of True Inner Peace ...

10.30AM, Sydney Australia.

Dear Colleague,

A secret practice developed by Aboriginal tribes almost 40,000 years ago, will take you to states of extremely deep and serene meditation. This method of deep contemplation can help you unlock the process of creating new energy pathways between the right and left hemispheres of your brain –leading you to a lofty state of mind, scientists call "whole-brain functioning."

This “synchronicity” between the two halves of your brain can dramatically improve your learning ability, memory, intuition, and creative powers. It also increases the production of vital brain chemicals related to your longevity, wellness and harmony. It actually opens the seven key energy centers in your body (known in the East as Chakras) – making you a powerhouse of energy, mental agility, and creativity.

This ancient wisdom will also lower your day to day stress levels. It will create remarkable improvements in your psychological and emotional health – even in areas that have you have found to be very resistant. The inner harmony, peace and happiness you will develop are described by people as positively euphoric! You are “high” on life. Your life.

All of this comes to you through an ancient Aboriginal ritual known as the “Deep Trance Meditation,” This melding of ancient tribal rites will accelerate your mental, emotional, physical and spiritual growth in a way that will absolutely astonish you.....and your friends ! You will be peaceful and much more centered.

The "Deep Trance Meditation" will:

- Take you into a trance like state of very deep meditation;
- Boost mindpower and creativity;
- Lower stress to almost zero;
- Heighten your senses to access new levels of spiritual awareness, blissful inner calm; and,
- Heal stubborn psychological programming at the subconscious level.

I am very happy with the "Awaken From The Dreamtime Level 1". The CDs are everything I hoped for and more!! I've been meditating for 10 years and for the last few years, deep meditations were interspersed by months of "going nowhere" meditations. I cannot thank you enough for this ancient secret. I'm quite sure that by using the "Deep Trance Meditation" everyday, my health problems will disappear. Thank you once again.-

Meditation Secret Number 1

Once upon a time, deep, ecstatic meditation was accessed easily...

The Aboriginals have practiced the art of the "Deep Trance Meditation" for eons... Over 50,000 years to be exact. When the Aboriginals migrated from India to Australia over 40,000 years ago, they brought with them the rich meditational traditions of the East. The oldest tradition being the use of vibrational sound which helped them to access higher dimensions of reality...dimensions not seen, heard or touched in the normal waking state, but could be accessed through deep meditational practices.

They believe that everything in the Universe was vibrating at a higher level than what we currently vibrate and in order for us to raise our level of consciousness, we needed to open up our energy systems to allow more of this higher vibrational force in, thus helping you to function in a higher more spiritual fashion.

Secret Now Revealed...

From generation to generation, tribal elders have shared the secrets of attaining this state of ultra-deep meditation practice with the younger generation of the tribe, which allowed them access to the same elusive Delta and Theta levels that their forefathers experienced. This primal secret was used to reach untapped and hidden gifts that lay dormant in the subconscious mind. Some of them being advanced thought, blissful states of consciousness and an unshakeable will power.

In 1990, in the middle of the Australian outback, I became aware of this amazing practice of meditation and made a commitment to the Aboriginal elders to make it available to the western world.

What a remarkable adventure...

I still remember the first time as an Aboriginal tribal elder guided me through the meditation. It was only ten minutes long, but felt like I had been meditating for hours, leaving me a very deep therapeutic feeling, interspersed by feelings of euphoria.

When I finished, I felt more peaceful than I could ever remember. I was totally serene, yet expanded, centered, mentally sharper, and somehow more in touch with myself.... engulfed in a very deep blissful calm state.

These feelings went on and on and on!

I felt I was in a timeless state of pure bliss...

I started to link the “Deep Trance Meditation” to the discoveries being made in modern science about whole-brain synchronisation. I also studied the origins of vibrational sound therapy, which are now just starting to be used in lavish health spas in around the United States...(at lavish prices).

I also found that specific sounds and vibrations used in ancient civilizations were used to open up the energy fields in the key meridian points in the subtle energy body. When these energy centers, which are called chakras, open up, they allow the all pervading universal energy to pour in. If opened using the right sounds and octaves, will create a speed up in bodymind evolution, taking you to a higher state of consciousness.

We also learnt how the brain allowed these same energy patterns to flow up and open the mind to meditative states of consciousness which were not experienced by ordinary people.

After these discoveries, we found that anyone, and I mean anyone, who were exposed to the “Deep Trance Meditation”, could access these same deep meditative states (and the incredible results they produced), with ease and tranquility.

Now I understood why the didgeridoo sound the Aborigines listened to during their “Deep Trance Meditation” was so important. They knew the secrets long before modern science even suspected anything.

Over the next few years, I gathered together didgeridoo players selected for me by the Aboriginal Tribal elders, went into a recording studio, and began making experimental soundtracks to get the right sound and octaves that were held secret for many many generations.

The meditation recordings were nothing short of beyond mind-

blowing...

When this ancient secret of didgeridoo sound was listened to, with or without stereo headphones – it produced some absolutely mind-blowing experiences (and incredible benefits) for the listener.....

Some of these are:

- Very deep states of deep delta meditative states – these states are not experienced by many....In fact very few reach these states of ultra deep, blissful silence. Brain function; you start to think very clearly.
- Increases of benefit driven brain chemicals; including the types that make you feel very high on life, like endorphins and other chemicals such as DHEA which are proven to turn back your physiological clocks, increasing longevity and vitality.
- Psychological patterns which are embedded in the deep parts of the subconscious; namely anger, fear, anxiety, sadness, drug and alcohol addiction, weight problems and self-limiting beliefs. (even negative programming you are not even aware of.); simply melt away like butter.
- States of cognitive super learning, you become more creative and highly intuitive. Focusing on anything you want to excel at becomes much easier.
- You become more Self-Aware. You tend not to dwell on the past or fantasise about the future, but become more embedded in the present moment.
- The stress factor becomes a thing of the past, helping you to deal with the world in a much more calm and centered fashion. (Over time, you will find that you are very relaxed and much less tense, leaving you feeling more connected to the world in a spiritual kind of way);
- Good things begin to cross your path, more frequently" ( it will seem as though there is someone "out there" looking after you.)

Sounds Like A Fairy-Tale, doesn't it?

Not once you understand the mechanics behind it. These are same results you can expect to experience once you have started using the "Deep Trance Meditation" program, because these are the same results the Aborigines have experienced for over 50,000 years.

Experiencing these deep meditative states each day also provides a soothing break for your nervous system, one that your soul is always deeply yearning for, helping it to cause profound changes in the brain and your seven key energy centers allowing the universal energy to flow through you more easily.

“TESTIMONIALS”

I have meditated since 1985 with mantra or breath and already have found that I can go deeper than was ever possible. I found over the years that the success of daily meditations is affected by lifestyle. Thus a busy day resulted in a poor meditation. With the CDs this is not the case and after an hour I'm relaxed and blissful regardless of what happened that day.-

How Does This Happen ?...

We are gradually opening key energy centers in your body using the ancient vibrational sounds of the didgeridoo, which when combined in certain octaves and a specific rhythm, have a very powerful vibration in them that unlocks the secret coding of the chakras, helping to unlock the dormant power that lay in them, unleashing talents and abilities you never even knew you possessed. You will absolutely amaze yourself ! ...your friends will not recognize you....you will be happier, more peaceful and much more fun to be around !

As your chakras start blossom open, you can expect these benefits...

- The First Chakra...Is associated with being rooted in the earth. A sense of belonging. Spiritual growth and a deep connection to nature.

- The Second Chakra...Is associated with intimacy. Healthy loving relationships. Pure and deep sexual union with your partner. The unconscious mind starts to reveal itself... giving you clues as to what subconscious programming needs to be replaced to help you function at a higher level of consciousness.

- The Third Chakra...is associated with the gaining of Self determination. A feeling of purpose starts to rise. You start to gain insight into your destiny. Your “will power” becomes unshakeable. You will start to manifest your goals much more easily.

- The Fourth Chakra... is associated with Universal compassion. Unconditional Love. A feeling of limitlessness.... everyone will notice the difference... you will be more loving.

- The Fifth Chakra... is associated with Creativity. Communication with others is greatly enhanced. Self expression is much more of a flow. Your speech is more clearer, flowing more confidently... in a nutshell, you will be so much more confident.

- The Sixth Chakra...is associated with a much more developed intuition. You will start to have a clear vision of your own spiritual path. A feeling of advanced knowing will start to overcome you, interspersed with a lofty feeling of transcendence.... You will gain insight into the destiny of mankind.

- The Seventh Chakra... is associated with a sense of completion. A sense of mysticism, Self realization and frequent flashes of “Enlightenment”. This is the state in which others will be drawn to you, seeking spiritual guidance and healing... you will be magnetically attractive.

“TESTIMONIALS”

The Aborigines said that when these chakras were closed, it caused us to live in a dreamlike and illusionary state, so we have aptly named our program, “Awaken From The Dreamtime”. There are 7 specific levels of the “Deep Trance Meditation” Each specific level opens up a different energy center or chakra in the body. When the whole 7 chakras are open and are functioning in harmony together, you will experience what is known in the east as being one with the Universe or “Enlightenment”. Raw energy will pour forth, and you will become a dynamic and magnetic force which will attract people who are on the same level as you, whilst being able to manifest the life of your dreams.

Meditation Secret Number 5

This next phase of the program will absolutely amaze you...

When the chakras start to open up, and a steady flow of psychic energy spins through them upwards into the brain, new energy patterns are created and the communication between the left and right sides of the brain start to function in harmony. This “whole brain” functioning is the cause of :-

- Heightened awareness;
- Creative thought;
- Increased intuitive thought;
- Vibrant experience of life;
- Stress relief; and,
- Improved relationship skills.

You are an unrealized Einstein...

It is believed that this increase in brainwave communication between the two sides of the brain is what separates great thinkers like Einstein from the average person.

With the “Deep Trance Meditation,” you open up the energy patterns connecting the different sides of the brain – allowing you access to the

It is now well overdue that I write to you with gratitude for introducing me to this program. Thanks Paul! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! It has taken me on an emotional roller coaster ride that has left me smiling. Everything you said it would do for me is happening!
"Looking back and remembering the man I used to be and comparing that to the man I am today, it is amazing that my body ever survived the emotional turmoil that I was delivering to it. Today I am relaxed, calm and in love with the new world that is unfolding before my eyes. All this and I have not yet completed Level One!-

same "whole brain" states that geniuses like Einstein had access to.

I promise, that you will see a remarkable change in your ability to think, learn and communicate more easily. You will become a "whole" person, which by the way, describes the holy (wholly) states of minds the great saints and sages experienced. It is not that these people were any different to you, it's just that they discovered the power of meditation and the awesome power of sound to influence the energy field which is in and all around us.

There is one other benefit though...one that may dwarf all the others...

Meditating with the Aboriginal "Deep Trance Meditation" creates incredible positive changes in mental and emotional health...and virtually eliminates all undesirable subconscious programming - even those stubborn unconscious programs which you are not even aware of.

Every time your brain creates new energy patterns in order to handle the increased energy flow coming up from the seven chakras— some of the psychological "garbage" you have hidden, deep in your subconscious mind – is brought up into conscious awareness, then fades away, as though you are gently, over time, rubbing it with sandpaper. This is what is called in the Old book, as "bringing the darkness to the Light".

This is the cause of the most astonishing improvements in mental and emotional health you will ever experience. You will get "clear" of all the self-limiting garbage that was holding you back... allowing you to advance more boldly in life...without fear.

Meditation Secret Number 6

OK, I see you're one of those "show me" types. That's good. If you really want to understand why the "Deep Trance Meditation" works, all you need is a little knowledge and education. So join me for...

Etheric energy waves Ala 21ST Century...

After about six months on the program, your whole energy and psyche system will finish creating the new etheric patterns it needs in order to distribute the increased amounts of energy pouring into the subtle body system.

Loads and loads of psychological garbage will have disappeared and you will be a lot more clearer....you will start to see things as they really are.

You are now like a weightlifter who's been lifting 100 pounds a day for several months, and now 100 pounds is easy, because the body has created a new and evolved structure that it needs to cope with that weight.

You can now move to the second level of the program, where we change the rhythm and octaves produced by the sound of the didgeridoo. This increases the vibrations that the chakras need to open, so they can handle the increase flow of psychic energy, which then creates an even deeper level of meditation experience...and a whole new level of existence takes place.

This second level, takes you much much deeper and then it takes a further six months to open the chakras, to let the new amount of energy pour into the psyche system, taking you to an even higher level of consciousness.

Another six months pass by and you're ready for Level 3, where we change the rhythm and octaves produced by the sound of the didgeridoo, once again increasing the vibrations needed to stimulate the encoding that opens the third chakra.

This procedure is repeated until we've opened all seven chakras. There are, in fact seven levels of the program in total, each with a different rhythm and a different range of octaves of the didgeridoo.

This ancient process has been kept secret for over 50,000 years, unknown to the western world...Until Now That Is !

meditation to treat certain conditions after recognizing the ancient practice's benefits.

Researchers at the Royal Hospital for women have found meditation successful in treating migraine, asthma, hot flushes and occupational stress.

Dr Ramesh Manocha, from the meditation research program at the hospital's natural therapies unit, said preliminary results indicated that the medical profession are starting to take meditation more seriously.

"There is definitely something to meditation and there is certainly a place for it in mainstream health institutions like hospitals and community health centers", he said.

"Our results have indicated that meditation may be helpful in accessing unique dimensions of experience that not only influences mental state, but physical and spiritual as well, bringing patients a "whole" feeling of health, vitality and general well being".

Dr Manocha said many doctors are now recommending meditation to their patients. "It is something they intuitively recognize and we are now scientifically making the connection between the mind and body for optimum health".

Can this connection really make you younger?...

Biological age measures how old a person is physiologically. When a group of long term meditators who had been practicing the "Deep Trance Meditation" for more than 5 years were tested, they were found to be physiologically 12 years younger than their chronological age, and also measured to have had a significant reduction of blood pressure, better near-point vision and auditory discrimination.

Short-term meditators were physiologically 5 years younger than their chronological age. Which proves that when in deep meditation, small doses of DHEA and human growth hormone are released into the blood stream, keeping you looking and feeling much younger than your true physiological age... It also proves, that age is just a state of mind and can be altered when your psychological make up is altered. The psychological alters the physiological.

Is DHEA really the secret to a youthful existence ?...

From experience, we already know that Deep Therapeutic Meditation opens up real intelligence, intuition, and creativity. In more recent years, science has given us more indications of how beneficial Meditation is for our brain and neural functions.

For example, one study compared the DHEA levels of meditators between the age of forty and fifty years with the DHEA levels of a control group of non-meditators. It was found that the meditating men had a 23 % higher level of DHEA as the non-meditators and in woman the difference was even much more evident.

As we know now, the hormone DHEA is needed for a wide range of biological functions and a lower level of DHEA has been associated with a decreased ability to concentrate and a host of other degenerative diseases, not to mention rapid aging....you'd probably agree that DHEA is very important.

Scientists have found that when patients were in deep meditation, these hormones flooded the system, allowing the system to flourish and recuperate quickly from the stresses of daily life...leaving you feeling refreshed and full of vigor.

Here's how you can take advantage of this breakthrough meditation process...

So you can get the maximum benefit from this ancient method of meditation, we've created a comprehensive program built in levels. The initial level is called "Awaken From The Dreamtime - Level 1" and includes four powerful soundtracks.

Each time you listen to the CD's, you will give your etheric energy system a very powerful stimulus of didgeridoo rhythms and octaves, taking you into a state of super-deep meditation. In order to process and handle this new wave of energy, your brain will create new energy patterns to help distribute the constant influx; until over time it has created a new structure that can easily handle the new doses of vibrational sound we're giving it.

You will take on a new direction...

The "Deep Trance Meditation" will create a revolution in your life, and because on a deeper psychological level.....you will resist that change, you may experience periods of coercion and unsettling. Your mind has been moulded in particular ways and when you start to untrain it from its familiar patterns, it will start to rebel....much like when you start to tame a wild horse.....it will start to buck , until bit by bit it starts to settle down, becoming much more peaceful and serene.

Of course we don't just leave you out in the cold. We provide e-mail support which will help you grow through the process... You're not alone.... We will lead you along the same path we have taken, holding up the lamp to make the journey enjoyable.

Don't worry, we've already treaded the path before you and experienced everything we're talking about here. So that makes us qualified to give you guidance from an experienced point of view, that way, you don't have to experience what we did.

Believe me...when you've reached my level, you'll look back and think it was well worth the effort and you feel so good afterwards, giving you even more motivation to advance onto the next level .

Is it safe?...

Finally, you might be asking, "Is the program safe? Are there any long-term dangers?"

The Aboriginals have been around for a very long time and will be around for a very long time to come. This program is much safer than the ways of the western world. Aboriginals have been using this well kept secret method for over 50,000 years to achieve levels of enlightenment that are unheard of in most modern societies. It is a secret which has kept them in existence....and they haven't shared it with anyone.... Except me.

What's the cost?

Apart from the money, this program is going to cost you everything you don't really want in your life, such as dysfunctional relationships, nagging health problems, anxiety and a whole host of things you can do without, replacing it with...

They said that each month, the different cycles of the moon had different vibrations to them, which affected your chakras, on a very subtle level. These different vibrations of the universe had a sound, and if these sounds or mantras were repeated in your mind whilst meditating, would bring you into alignment, with the same level as the Universe.

Unleash The Power of Your Mind...

You have abilities and powers that you're not even aware of. You were born with these powers-- but you have never learned how to master them. Your success starts in your mind. But instead of working with your mind you go through life trying different things and hoping for the best - but never really getting the most out of your own powers. I'll show you how to master these amazing powers with this unique online seminar.

Doctors and scientists now firmly believe that 75% of all sickness and disease starts in the mind. Researchers have also proven that stress, which starts in the mind, is the number one cause of all fatigue and illness. Scientists have also proven that we only use 10% of our mind. The rest is never used properly. That means 10% of our mind is causing 75% of all sickness -- and we don't even know how to use that 10% properly. Imagine what would happen if we used our mind to it's fullest? We would stop getting sick and live healthier, more productive lives. Best of all you would be able to create the success you want in life!

Researchers have also proven that people who have a healthy and positive attitude -- or incorporate positive thinking -- live better lives. Why? Because they know how to use the power of their mind. Unfortunately most people never get their mind working for them. Instead, they get their mind to work against them -- creating things they don't want.

Your mind creates everything in your life. Only you don't know how to work with your mind properly. This online seminar teaches you how to get your mind working for you so you create the success you want in life.

Your mind is an incredible power. I'll show you how doing a simple exercise while you sleep, you can unleash this amazing power. Most important of all you'll develop your Inner Spirit and Intuition by tapping into the power of your subconscious mind. Plus you'll learn a number of proven techniques that will generate astounding results while creating the success you set out to accomplish.

Throughout your life, you have been taught all kinds of things. You were taught how to walk, how to read, how to write, etc. But no one ever taught you how to use the Power of Your Mind and Subconscious mind. This online seminar is the instruction course for your mind and I will teach you how to get the most out of it.

Now I know some of you may say this sounds too good to be true. So before I go any further, let me share a story with you - one that will give you an example of how a person used this very online seminar turned her life around. I'm not talking about just creating a few good things. But being able to turn her life around completely - 180-degrees.

On a winter afternoon a few years ago, a very close friend, whom I'll call Amanda, told me something very important as we walked through the park. She said she wanted to accomplish two major goals in her life.

Amanda wanted to change her stress filled job. She was on a terrible shift surrounded by angry and negative people who didn't care for her and destroyed her self-esteem. But the money was good - so Amanda stuck with it - despite always being tired and never having enough time for herself. Amanda also wanted to get married. She was getting older and wanted to be in a life long relationship - not just to anyone - but to someone who really cared about her and made her the center of his life.

I told Amanda that everything she wanted was possible and explained that all she had to do was develop her power - which was much easier than she thought. Amanda didn't believe me. After a long discussion I convinced her to do this online seminar. Amanda remained skeptical and told me that she had tried everything including astrology, psychics, self-help programs and even counseling. None of them worked. Although skeptical at first, she agreed to try the system. She started to get new job leads within the first 2 weeks!!

Within a month Amanda started dating a terrific guy. Another month passed and she had her new job making even more money than she was before. After 6 months she was engaged and is now married. They just bought a new home in a terrific neighborhood.

Amanda learned a valuable lesson that she also needed guidance and coaching while she learned to master her new powers. You need to have someone who can explain how to develop and master your Creative Powers and explain how and why they work! It's not enough to listen to tapes and read books. It's not enough to simply talk about things on your mind. You need to Create a new way of living and get valuable guidance as you develop your inner power and abilities.
